

GHD Strategy & Economics

WATER | ENERGY & RESOURCES | ENVIRONMENT | PROPERTY & BUILDINGS | TRANSPORTATION

GHD's Strategy & Economics practice is a national advisory business that spans the transport, water and social infrastructure sectors.

Our objective is to help our clients improve utilisation, efficiency and effectiveness of services and infrastructure.

Services

- Assessing the economic robustness and feasibility of infrastructure projects through project profiling, economic appraisal and deliverability assessment (risk, governance and timing)
- Cost Benefit Analysis (CBA) - economic analysis
- Strategic Merit Tests (SMT)
- Benefits Realisation Analysis
- Investment Logic Mapping (ILM)
- Economic impact analysis, including employment and related impacts
- Wider Economic Benefit (WEB) analysis
- Multi Criteria Analysis, including non-financial/intangible benefits extending beyond project life
- Demand forecasting, elasticity analysis, demographics, trade and market analysis
- Cost analysis and pricing models for state authorities, regulators, service providers and users, international aid agencies and institutional investors
- Financial analysis and modelling
- Funding options advice, submission preparation and assessment
- Strategic planning, including options strategy analysis and value chain assessments
- Strategic transport planning
- Regulatory economics, governance and interface management advice
- Corporate governance and compliance
- Corporatisation and privatisation advice
- Organisational development and business improvement
- Operations modelling, efficiency performance measurement and productivity analysis at the national, industry and individual enterprise level

For further information, contact:

Steve Kanowski

T 61 7 3316 3151

E steve.kanowski@ghd.com

