

GHD Maritime & Coastal

WATER | ENERGY & RESOURCES | ENVIRONMENT | PROPERTY & BUILDINGS | TRANSPORTATION

A strategic approach to maritime and coastal infrastructure is key to amplifying the environmental, social and economic benefits to community.

We take the time to understand your needs and requirements, providing unique, innovative and robust solutions.

Our team of industry leaders have a breadth of experience in coastal engineering, small craft facilities and ports. We can assist with the full spectrum of maritime and coastal infrastructure developments, upgrades or refurbishments.

Services

- Masterplanning
- Policy and strategic advice
- Planning approvals and permits
- Conceptual through to detailed design and documentation of maritime and coastal structures
- Numerical and physical modelling of coastal processes
- Offshore metocean studies
- Dredging, reclamation and beach nourishment advice
- Coastal management planning
- Sea level rise risk assessment and adaptation
- Logistics and financial modelling

- Risk assessment and management
- Environmental management
- Due diligence and asset management
- Condition assessment and rehabilitation
- Procurement strategies and tender evaluation
- Construction supervision and certification

Our integrated, global team offers a diverse range of maritime services across the project lifecycle.

Our clients represent a range of stakeholders in industry: small to large enterprise, both private and public entities. We take a collaborative approach to delivering project success - engage GHD and you'll see 'best for project' solutions from the get-go.

For further information, contact:

www.ghd.com/maritime-coastal-engineering

